

Eagle House e-News

Sharing our knowledge to support the community surrounding Autism

Happy New Year to you from the Eagle House Group of Schools and Colleges for Children and Young People with Autism.

Although the New Year has started off rather chilly, we knew you would be warmed by the latest list of exciting training and events we have on offer:

- 'the little group' training - Level 1 & 2 (Central London)
- FREE Workshops for all parents, at Eagle House 1 (Mitcham)
- Ros Blackburn, adult with autism, visits Eagle House (Norfolk)
- 5P Approach Training
- FREE Information Session 'Your child in Residential school' for Parents (South London)

FREE Workshops for Parents (Eagle House School (Mitcham))

If you are a parent of a child with autism and you would like to learn more about your child's difficulties, come and join our staff at Eagle House School (Mitcham). There is so much to learn about autism - not only what it is, but how to live with it. Our specialist multidisciplinary team has developed a series of workshops designed to not only inform parents but also to create the opportunity to have your burning questions answered. Workshops will include subjects such as Sensory Processing, Social Stories/Comic Strip Conversations and much more.....

the little group

NEW DATES for LEVEL 1 & LEVEL 2 of the inspiring 'little group' TRAINING (Central London)

L1 - Thursday 4th March 2010
L2 - Thursday 11th March 2010

This popular 'hands on' training, delivered by experienced Head Teacher Judy Gilham, is intended for practitioners who are on the front line of delivering services to children with ASD/communication difficulties. Parents are warmly welcomed.

Click here to read more about this fresh look at:

- Grabbing children's attention and keeping it
- Offering an irresistible invitation to learn
- Guaranteeing a positive experience for all
- Ensuring that learning is always 'fun'

BOOK EARLY to avoid disappointment!

Click here for course outline, cost and location.
TO BOOK your place, complete the online form or call Carrie Haslett on 0845 074 2972.

Ros Blackburn, Adult with Autism, Visits Norfolk for a Workshop (March '10)

We look forward to welcoming all interested local professionals and parents in the East of England to experience FREE TALK by Ros Blackburn, offering her unique insight into autism. Ros is a highly respected international speaker who, despite her severe autism, eloquently shares her feelings, fears and frustrations with her audience describing how she manages her life.

The 5P Approach (February '10)

Eagle House Group Operations Director and author, Linda Miller, is running another introductory course to accompany the recent publication of her book 'Practical Behaviour Management Solutions for Teens with Autism'. In combination, the book and training course provide an indispensable tool kit of practical solutions for professionals, parents and teachers working with the challenges of autism.

FREE Parent Workshops - 'Is Residential School Suitable for My Child?' (South London)

Eagle House Group Development Manager, Julia Pithouse, talks to parents about the residential option available for children and youngsters with autism. Julia has two children with autism herself, both of whom have had residential placements. Vital for any parents considering residential placement for their child either now or in the future. Julia will also be joined by John Shaw, Principal of Eagle House School (Norfolk), the Eagle House Group Residential School.

Do you have any questions or comments on this newsletter? Suggestions for future topics?

We need your feedback.

Don't miss out on the next issue of 'Eagle House e-News'. Follow this link to SUBSCRIBE, or go to the website.

© Eagle House Group Ltd